

PILLARS OF LIGHT, TRUTH, FREE WILL & UNIVERSAL LAW;
A Sermon on Ascension and Its Meaning Part I

So what does it mean when you fall off the cliff of duality? -- Where are you when the plane of reality that you have always clung to is no more there? -- What do you do when time itself is no more and life seems to be speeding up at a phenomenal rate and You still aren't sure where your feet are? -- why does this seem to be such an endless time of choice? — And, what does Ascension mean anyway?

All of these are excellent questions for understanding the place in evolution at which the human race is now. We are at the pinnacle of consciousness, about to make inevitable choices. But what are those choices; what do they mean; and why are we now making them? – Again all good questions.

Part I
The Pillars of Light and Truth

In the Beginning – An Esoteric Truth:

From the beginning of that which we know as time, there has been but One Source. That Source is Divine in nature, Omniscient, Omnipresent and, of course, Omnipotent. At that instant of First Cause there was only Oneness, that which we call God or Prime Source. From that first moment there was an involution, which took everything within the context of that universal moment of absolute oneness into an outward journey of form. But still, the absolute nature of First Cause (Prime Source) was spirit or what we might call Light or even energy.

That Divine force in its outward movement created all things that are within the realm of existence and nothing that was made was not in that realm. This is the basic truth of absolute reality. And as all things devolved into ever denser manifestations of matter, more and more expressions of matter evolved. From that basic cauldron or cook pot of creation everything was born: micro-matter, minute matter, and eventually gross matter. Thus from dust we were created into the ever-evolving expressions of Divine matter that we know as humankind. Yet, this Divine matter is still spiritual in nature as it comes from spirit which comes from Prime Source or, as the religionists would have it, comes from God.

Duality out of Oneness:

The facts of Divine origin or Causality are not bound by human names, but by the awareness of consciousness that came forth in that first movement. Out of oneness came twoness; what we now know as duality and in and of itself, it was good, as the God Source was good--Omniscient, Omnipresent and Omnipotent. And, of course, we, as the human elements of that Divine expression are, so to speak, at the end most point of that spiritualization of matter; we are Divine expression in human manifestation.

Path of Involution:

Further, as the natural course of awareness evolves outwards, it also goes through a path of involution, which is primarily inwards in nature. So we can understand that that which was outwardly manifested from beginningless time, is now on a path back to Oneness or Divine Source. But! How do we know this? Apart from scriptural readings, which tells us that this is so because it is written thus, there are the ancient esoteric traditions that teach the inward paths of truth and the higher planes of conscious awareness. Simply put, we know from many reliable sources that there is but one Cause to the Universe; that we come from that Prime Source as do all things; and, most importantly, that we are but expressions of that infinite modality. "God is in us, and we are in God. And God is all that is, ever was, or ever will be."

Once you have this basic concept under your belt you can begin to separate your understanding from dogmatic teachings which still expound a 'Savior outside of one's self'. When you realize that the term 'Christ' is an outward manifestation of the Fatherhood of God, and that God Consciousness is within all of creation; and, that the Christ energy is a defining part of the universe we inhabit; then, you begin to understand your role in this evolving cosmos.

The Truth of Christ Consciousness:

Where does the Light of Christ come in? It's a good question and basic to truly understanding the panoply of creation. One begins by understanding that the 'Christ' consciousness that is referred to here isn't unique to the incarnation of the one called Jesus of Nazareth. Christ consciousness existed within this universe and upon this earth plane long before it chose to devolve into human form. And, it exists now in the world as a living manifestation of Light – the Light of the Father. In fact, this universe is defined as a Christed Universe, one that has chosen the Light and Love of the Father through the awareness which is of Christ illumination. Thus, the color of light most associated with that Divine energetic field that composes this universe is white; the white light of Christ. Apart from the Divine incarnation, which was, indeed, an outward and thus tangible expression of that higher consciousness in human form, we are all an integral part of Christ energy. We are born of it, breathe it, live in that light, and co-create the reality of our lives from it. It is the very soulness of which we are.

First Cause Devolving into Materiality:

Now that you have begun to see the actual mechanics of the Universe as a Divine order or panoply of creation, you may be still struggling with the concept of duality versus Oneness. As God or First Cause sought to know Self and hence became self aware, the universe came into motion, and with that motion came the subject and the object. That is, with 'oneness' there was only Source or Prime, the subject without reference. But, with awareness came the object, twoness aka duality. And from this, all esoteric schools tell us, "all things were made"; all form was devolved from the essence of spirit.

But, where does that leave humankind?

Another good point! We have ever been on this outward journey to spiritualize matter in the service of Divine Awareness. Even as we are born onto the earth in life after life, we have come to bring our individuated-God-Consciousness into ever greater manifestation. We have taken all under our God-Consciousness dominion as our 'right of conquest', forgetting who we are and whence we came. Duality became as a god to us, one of ever-increasing desire, greed and, in the latest manifestations, hate. The poisons of our delusions have long led us astray from the awareness of the Absolute Realm of existence of which we all are a part.

Modern-Day Prophets:

The time of ignorance and indulgence has now come to its end. As the prophets of old foretold the coming of Divinity onto the earth, the prophets of our own Aquarian Age known as channels are once more carrying forth the Father's decree.

"This planet is to be of the Light" And all darkness shall be vanquished. "The children of the Father AKA Prime Source will each and every one have the opportunity to return to the realms of Light and Christ Consciousness, or they can choose the longer road of rebirth until another Age has passed when they might be more ready to Ascend to the higher realms of love and light fore-ordained for this planet." We are now in, and have been moving ever forward into the Age of Light and Love, The Aquarian Age, where planetary change, transformation and ascension are to manifest as the inward evolution back to unification with Divinity. We are of the Father. And, the Father is of us.

The End of an Age:

Now it is that we have the opportunity to demonstrate that connection with Prime Source; to live in the ways ever intended for us—in light, in love, in abundance, and in joy. This is the End Time. Yet, not in fire will mankind be parted from the woes of this earth, but through the choice of either 'love, light, and joy' or conversely, 'greed, hate and delusion'. It is but for us to choose! The war of duality is not of the chosen people and the realms of fiery hell, but rather that of the choice between materialism and spiritual life. All the Masters of this Age, speaking through the Seers of our time know this and have transmitted the Father's decree to us. And those of us who have the eyes to see and the ears to hear, know that this Truth is singular in its message and profound among the messages of all the Ages of man.

Discernment:

Yet, let us not be confused or further deluded into thinking that all prophets, all channels are of the Father or could impart the message of truth coming from Prime Source. There are those who are indeed false, false not just because they may be of the dark – certainly that may be true – but, false because the inner knowledge that they are vouchsafed may not be of the highest Individuated-God-Consciousness.

The task of Seeing is an age-old responsibility carried forth from the Celts and the Greeks and well back to the time of the Biblical prophets, but the responsibility for seeing and hearing the Word has always been vouchsafed to the higher man; that is, a consciousness ready to withstand and uphold the light of truth being transmitted.

Those who only think they know, but do not actually know, tell us nothing that is worth knowing. In this Aquarian Age, there are a growing number of channels who do comprehend the way of Truth and Light. Knowledge has come slowly to this planet over a millennia or so of attunement. Yet, in this age of increased human awareness, the channels have been carefully chosen by Divine Source and the Ascended Masters embodying Christ Consciousness. Along with them have come other beings of light, who have already achieved unitive consciousness. These Ascended Masters and cosmic beings are our guides, our teachers, and have come to lead us through this time of Ascension, what some call the End Time. And none of these espouse fear, greed, or rapture. None maintain the mastery over the physical earth or the destruction of it. Rather they tell us of the transformation that is even now occurring within our solar system and upon the earth. They tell us of the emergence of the pattern of truth and wisdom that has long been denied us, because of the avarice of certain ruling factions of our planet. They eagerly await our enlightenment, our awakening into the oneness of existence, as many of them have never experienced the level of duality that we have embodied on earth.

Channels / World=-wide:

Some of the channels have had visions of Divinity since childhood, some have been directly chosen to transmit a specific message, and some have come into this earthplain to link to Source to give healing and succor to those who have intensely suffered. But all – all of them, channels, cosmic beings, and Ascended Masters – have come through the Light of Christ, the Divine Light of the Father Creator. They all without exception accept the Father Most High, Creator of All things, creator of our universe and many other universes, the singularity of First Cause.

When we finally meet our brothers and sisters from afar, we will eventually come to know what they know: that God is a God of Love and that we share in the light, as we are already beings of light. Once chosen, never abandoned; once given, never forsaken. Once claimed from within, never again sought from some outside entity or savior. The Christ consciousness that came down into the Nazarene was a Teacher of Light. He came to show us the “Way, the Truth, and The Life”, and that was simply put, the way of Light. Light is love. Love is energy. Energy which is bounded in love and light is God. In short: God is! There is simply nothing else.
